

Adient executive biography

Michel Berthelin

Executive Vice President, EMEA

Michel Berthelin joined Adient in 2018 as executive vice president, EMEA.

Previously, Berthelin was responsible for the EMEA Internal Combustion Engine and Powertrain division at Delphi Technologies. Prior to that, he served for 10 years in various global and regional leadership roles at ZF/TRW Automotive. Michel has also held positions at Visteon and Renault.

He specializes in operations management, lean manufacturing implementation and strategies for business growth.

Berthelin earned a degree in engineering from the Ecole Nationale Supérieure d'Arts et Métiers in Paris and an MBA in finance from Kellogg School of Management in Evanston, Illinois.